

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Lynn has given 27 years of service to the City of Burlington, with many good times and some challenging ones, too; and

WHEREAS, Lynn has contributed a multitude of great ideas to make the Clerk/Treasurer's Office more efficient; and

WHEREAS, Lynn has been our fearless Union Steward; and

WHEREAS, Lynn has entered a trazillion land records entries over the years; and

WHEREAS, Lynn has worked seamlessly with different Administrations and during a number of staff transitions, beginning when Bernie Sanders was Mayor and now ending her reign with me; and

WHEREAS, Lynn has tried to teach us all to get it right when recycling and composting, frequently picking items out of the basket, and exclaiming loudly "Who put this in here?!"; and

WHEREAS, Lynn has battled with the computer program AMANDA, working to clean up the program and stop AMANDA from erasing all record of past owners with one simple name change; and

WHEREAS, the City of Burlington reserves the right to call Lynn back in case of a zombie invasion; and

WHEREAS, Lynn takes great pride in her work, has no prejudice against any vault user, and cannot be diverted from the task at hand;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Miro Weinberger, Mayor of the City of Burlington, Vermont, do hereby proclaim Friday, August 8, 2014 to be in the City of Burlington, and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we thank Lynn for her outstanding 27 years of service to the City of Burlington and wish her well in her travels.

LYNN BRELSFORD DAY
